

TOBACCO CONTROL

Individual and human rights in tobacco control: help or hindrance?

Edited by Brion J Fox and James E Katz

Contents

Introduction

- ii1 Individual and human rights in tobacco control: help or hindrance?
B J Fox, J E Katz

Research papers

- ii3 "Not safe" is not enough: smokers have a right to know more than there is no safe tobacco product
L T Kozłowski, B Q Edwards
- ii8 Ensuring smokers are adequately informed: reflections on consumer rights, manufacturer responsibilities, and policy implications
S Chapman, J Liberman
- ii14 The human rights responsibilities of multinational tobacco companies
M E Crow
- ii19 International trade agreements: a threat to tobacco control policy
E R Shaffer, J E Brenner, T P Houston
- ii26 Ethical and legal aspects of global tobacco control
T E Novotny, D Carlin
- ii31 Individual rights advocacy in tobacco control policies: an assessment and recommendation
J E Katz
- ii38 Framing tobacco control efforts within an ethical context
B J Fox
- ii45 Social movements and human rights rhetoric in tobacco control
P D Jacobson, A Banerjee

NEW

ONLINE SUBMISSION

GO TO WEBSITE

TO SUBMIT YOUR MANUSCRIPT