

DECLARATION OF INTERESTS STATEMENT

Editor name: Marita Hefler (Editor-in-Chief)

Journal: Tobacco Control

I have read and understood the BMJ's policy on declaration of interests and declare the following:

Personal financial interests

Since 2013, I have been employed full time by the Menzies School of Health Research, Charles Darwin University, Australia. Within the last five years, I have received fellowship funding from the Heart Foundation Australia and salary support and travel and accommodation expenses through the NHMRC Centre of Research Excellence on Achieving the Tobacco Endgame at the University of Queensland. Since 2012, I have received an honorarium from Tobacco Control for editorial roles, and from 2024 an annual honorarium and reimbursement of travel and accommodation expenses for work as Editor-in-Chief. I have received travel and accommodation expenses for speaking at public health conferences and workshops.

Organisational financial interests

Within the last five years, I have received grant funding from the National Health & Medical Research Council (Australia) and Medical Research Future Fund. I have also received payment for consulting work for the Northern Territory government and various non-government health and social service organisations.

Non-financial interests

I am the chair of the Northern Territory Advisory Board of Heart Foundation Australia and member of the Northern Territory Tobacco Control Advisory Committee. I have been a member of grant review panels and/or advisory committees for Cancer Council New South Wales, NHMRC, Cancer Research UK, Health Research Council New Zealand and French National Cancer Institute. I participate in tobacco control advocacy. I have published or collaborated on research with >80 colleagues and research students. I recuse myself from handling or reviewing papers submitted by colleagues with whom I have current or recent collaboration and/or co-authorship of papers.
